

Ireland

Londonderry and a taste of the Wild Atlantic Way

Embrace the lush beauty of the Emerald Isle on an international road trip between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland.

Starting in Londonderry, you'll cross the border into The Republic of Ireland for an epic adventure along the northern stretch of the Wild Atlantic Way.

Stop for hearty meals between gorgeous bays and rugged headlands, and take a short detour to Glenveagh Tea Rooms for a cosy lunch after a hike in pristine Glenveagh National Park.

Key route points: Start in Londonderry, cross to Letterkenny, and then head north, following the coast until Donegal

Don't miss: Crohy Head Sea Arch

Total length: 173 miles, 278 km, approx 5 hours
